

Sparks of spiritual wisdom

-Bhagawan Sri Satyananda Maharshi

Translated by S. Vasudeva Rao, IPS, Visakhapatnam

1. Get up at the auspicious hour i.e., at 4.00 A.M.(Brahmi Muhurtha) everyday.
2. Sit in bed and pray to God for 15 minutes at the least.
3. Finish your morning ablutions and continue meditation with concentration.
4. Start chanting of the mantras given to you by your spiritual teacher.
5. Practice of chanting makes God pleased with you.
6. Spiritual practices devoid of teacher's guidance go waste.
7. Never treat the spiritual teacher as an ordinary person.
8. Treat teacher as God.
9. Offer all that you have to the teacher mentally.
10. Human life without devotion is barren.
11. It is the chief duty of man to have vision of the Lord.
12. There is nothing greater than God's name.
13. Spiritual discipline through devotion is an easy thing for all.
14. Love shown to God is devotion.
15. Craving for physical things is attachment.
16. The Lord's name is the best medicine for all ills.
17. God is your refuge and support.
18. The main reason for non - realization of God is criticism of others by you.
19. Stop criticism of others and do self criticism.
20. Redeem yourself by self - effort.
21. A foolish man moves forward to criticize others but takes back step in introspection.
22. One who does not trust in God can't be a man.
23. Faith does good for us while distrust results in loss for one self.
24. Faith is life; lack of it is death.
25. Faith leads to redemption but lack of faith binds one.
26. Do good and tell others to do good.
27. It is the character of an inferior person to ask others to follow what is right, when he does not do so.
28. A man without compassion is a demon.
29. what does a self-less man expect from others?
30. Food given to a person goes away after some time But knowledge given to one does not go away.
31. The gift of knowledge is the greatest of all gifts.
32. You should not forget even a small help given by others.
33. Never forget the teacher who imparts real knowledge to you. You should, infact, serve him with devotion.
34. The man without education is one kind of animal.
35. Heaven and hell are very much here.
36. Your own conduct decides whether your house becomes a hell or heaven.
37. God helps only those who strive.
38. God does not favour the lazy.
39. A slothful man can make no progress on physical or spiritual fronts.
40. Discharge of one's duty is prayer to the Lord.
41. Prayer is the ambassador that connects you to God.
42. Good company is the basis for all good things.
43. Evil company is the root of all losses.
44. Even a theists pray to God in troubles.
45. Adversities act as a beacon light towards right path.
46. Redemption lies in right mind.
47. Those who spend beyond their means suffer.
48. Good literature is the foundation of growth of society.
49. Bad literature causes the downfall of society.
50. Decrease of desires leads to happiness and their increase causes sorrows.

51. Desires sanctioned by sacred texts are not wrong.
52. Forbidden pleasures should be forsaken.
53. Think deeply before you act.
54. Focus your mind on some positive works at all times.
55. An idle mind runs towards undesirable things.
56. The man without morals is mindless.
57. Bliss lies within you.
58. It is futile to look for bliss in the external world, while failing to see it within you.
59. The goddess of success automatically comes towards those who strive.
60. Indulgence in pleasure binds one while its sacrifice redeems you.
61. In life's battle fight courageously against passion and anger.
62. For future joy, you need to work hard now.
63. Punishment is inevitable for sin.
64. Merit gets rewarded.
65. cruelty shows demoniac tendency, while compassion is divinity.
66. Failure to recall the sacred stanza leads to sorrow.
67. conquest of mind is the main aim in life. Self-Realization alone is the goal.
68. Good intentions take shape of meritorious deeds.
69. Scholarship cannot come in one day.
70. Achievable state can not become possible in one day.
71. If there is no defect in your spiritual practice you become mature soon and gain vision of the Lord.
72. It is not external but internal beauty that is important.
73. Service to all creatures is service to God.
74. Lead a simple and pious life.
75. Shape your life by your own efforts.
76. If there is no short coming in human effort, divine grace will follow.
77. Without deep enquiry, the real nature of things cannot be known.
78. Falsehood leads to ruin while purity of conduct contributes to one's welfare.
79. God is the embodiment of love Without love in your heart, God cannot be gained.
80. God grants His grace only to those who love and serve fellow human beings.
81. For a sincere practitioner of spiritual discipline redemption is a breeze.
82. Innumerable thoughts (sankalpas) arise in your mind. Don't worry, Son! Surrender to God. Then Thoughts die down.
83. Never forget that material objects are poisonous.
84. Right enquiry, right company and right thoughts-these three principles sincerely help you gain control of mind.
85. Always remember that Truth is God and God is Truth.
86. A thought that gains strength ultimately leads you to tranquility.
87. There is no peace without calmness.
88. Only a calm man gains the wealth of soul.
89. Meditation helps merger of heart in the supreme Being. You would then gain eternal Bliss.
90. Non-Violence and truth are the two wheels of the chariot of righteousness. (Dharma)
91. Speaking to God and silence with men is real silence.
92. Experience of Internal Bliss is silence.
93. Limited speech is silence.
94. Of all virtues, non-violence is the greatest.
95. The man who has ambition is poor and who does not have this is rich.
96. Tendencies decline with spiritual practice.
97. Treat the whole universe as God.

98. Keep things in order when there is light in house. While alive, adopt divine qualities and gain Great Bliss.
99. Once you control tongue, all senses come under your control automatically.
100. The man who justifies wrong things as right is a false man.
101. One who accepts his mistakes makes spiritual progress.
102. Selfishness is the cause of sorrow while selflessness is the cause of happiness.
103. Liberation is your birth right.
104. Pomp causes difficulties while simplicity leads to joy.
105. There is no end for expectations till the last breath.
106. Never speak in excess. Never eat in excess. Never exceed limits in transactions.
107. Scholarship without humility is like a flower without fragrance.
108. Strive for peace here and now.
109. Tomorrow is a shapeless idea.
110. Tendency to postpone spiritual to a later date is dangerous. Even death can occur in the meanwhile.
111. Life full If love is centred in joy.
112. Man with divine grace can achieve anything.
113. Both the spoken word and heart should be soft.
114. God is beyond word and mind. But He can be perceived by the pure hearted.
115. Time is more valuable than money. Money lost can be earned again but not time.
116. If you have the innocent heart of a child, you will gain divine grace.
117. Like the wick in a lamp, a great man works hard and gives comfort to others.
118. Reduce service to body and increase service to God.
119. Turn inward in solitude and see the Supreme Truth.
120. Money is sacred. Use it for good purposes. Don't misuse it for wrong ends.
121. All persons can gain divine grace of God.
122. Sorrow is the bitter fruit of passion while happiness is sweet fruit of devotion.
123. Attachment is the cause of birth while detachment leads to Redemption.
124. Good books are your true friends.
125. Lead life as instructed by the Teacher and sacred texts.
126. Many people like to spend some time with the person who speaks softly.
127. If mouth is good, the village is good.
128. Before sleeping, review the deeds done by you during the day.
129. If bad deeds done by you are in excess, shed tears and try to improve the record of good deeds done by you. Then God will help you.
130. Pride is the root of all evils.
131. The person who does not succumb to ego gains knowledge.
132. The man without morals may be rich today, but he will weep tomorrow when his bad deeds reach their logical end.
133. Defaulting person only finds faults with others.
134. Whatever be the losses dangers, obstacles or troubles, that may happen remain fearless and move forward in the path of devotion.
135. A man without debts is rich.
136. If you don't know yourself, how can you know others?
137. Study the ways of mind closely.
138. Do things quickly. Delay is a sign of sloth.
139. Leave aside defects of the world and accept only its merits.
140. Sacrifice your life for a good cause.
141. Behave respectfully toward parents, teachers, scholars, elders and people of wisdom.
142. The one who misses an opportunity to serve, slides down from the very aim of life.
143. The one who sees none other thing than himself in all is

- wise.(Jnani)
144. Spiritual practice without purity of heart is useless.
145. It is difficult to get a good name but easy to get a bad name.
146. Today's small attempts become tomorrow's big deeds.
147. Never be jealous of fame, education wealth power and profile of others.
148. When you feel glad at knowledge, wealth and fame of others both internally and externally, you will advance in spiritual path.
149. Whenever you find time, try to spend it in solitude to experience the Bliss in silence.
150. Never waste leisure time in worldly things, bad company or reading of bad books.
151. Think deeply inside and say meaningful words.
152. Never leave truth in any situation.
153. Treat other women as your mothers and offer respect to them in mind.
154. The place where women are respected is full of wealth.
155. It is foolish to think of crossing river only after waves subside. Similarly thinking of leading spiritual life after fulfillment of family responsibilities is equally foolish.
156. Practice makes the slave a King.
157. Stop empty talk and get into action.
158. Young people consider the old as foolish. The old people feel sad that the young are going astray.
159. A man without contentment does not get peace anywhere.
160. A spiritual aspirant should forge ahead like a true warrior. He should not turn back or retreat from his objective.
161. A spiritual aspirant must be strict in adherence to rules of discipline.
162. If you want enmity with some one, borrow money from him.
163. When God is with you, why you should be afraid?
164. The teacher's grace is an eternal wealth for us.
165. Forbearance is the key for vision of the Lord.
166. Self-praise and blaming of others should always be avoided.
167. The foundation for the building of spirituality is purity of heart.
168. When the mind is sick, the body gets diseased.
169. Train your mind properly as a teacher trains his student.
170. Forget the injury caused to you by any one but remember for ever any favour done to you by one.
171. An unjust man remembers more about the losses caused to him by others.
172. The present is yours - not future.
173. Keep away sloth by spiritual practices.
174. Surrender to God completely and seek His protection. He will take care of you.
175. Don't neglect physical strength under the impression that mental strength is important. Do exercise in the morning and gain physical strength.
176. Other physical exercise give strength to only body while Yoga and sun salutation give strength to both body and mind. (Suryanamaskaras)
177. Eat soft, agreeable and limited food.
178. Non-vegetarian food is prohibited. Never touch it by even a mistake.
179. The man who is brave in danger is great.
180. The person who helps you and stands by you both in joys and sorrows is a true friend.
181. Learn to live together with good people.
182. Never feel proud that you know everything.
183. Silence of mind is greater than silence of mouth.
184. Never allow pomposity to come near you.
185. The person who does not grieve over past but concentrates on the present is a true spiritual aspirant.
186. By following the path of great people you would reach the - destination safely.

187. When you get real hunger for the divine Quest, you will go to teacher - doctor for medicine of knowledge.
 188. See God in the universe manifest before you.
 189. One gets troubles by anger and happiness by patience.
 190. Never decline spiritually. Try to make gradual progress by sustained efforts.
 191. Never serve a mean man. Serve God alone with devotion.
 192. You can learn a lot from animals, birds and even stones.
 193. Be sober and dignified like a lion.
 194. Learn from birds that you should not store things for tomorrow.
 195. Like the granite stone, one should remain dispassionate and forgiving.
 196. From the example of a tree learn to be beneficial to others. Gain a higher vision of life from the example of lamp.
 197. From a flowing river, learn to do incessant hard work.
 198. Learn from lion and tigers how to be a brave in celibacy.
 199. Harmonize your word, thought and deed.
 200. When you offer devotion consistent in word, thought and deed, God is pleased.
 201. Remember that without Lord's order, not even an ant can bite.
 202. A Brahmin's intellect, a warrior's valour, a merchant's patience and labourer's physical strength you must possess in you.
 203. A man of courage can achieve any thing.
 204. Offer the lotus of your heart to the Lord.
 205. When you have divine grace, why should you feel afraid of any one? Even a strong man can do no harm to you.
 206. Develop insight. See the Self.
 207. Fight internal enemies of passion and anger with courage.
 208. Once you achieve purity and stability, you will have vision

- of the Divine.
209. Never swerve from your aim.
 210. Your aim and target is gaining vision of Lord.
 211. Humility is a quality of a good man while boastfulness is the quality of a bad man.
 212. Calmness is the quality of a mellowed man while pride is the characteristic of an arrogant man.
 213. Leave lethargy aside and keep working incessantly.
 214. Man of action emerge victorious is bound one day.
 215. Listen to opinions and purposes of all but do what you feel is right on your own resolution.
 216. Speak in your mother tongue.
 217. Never think that speaking in a foreign language is more respectable.
 218. There is nothing wrong in learning a foreign language but ignoring one's mother tongue and speaking always in another language is wrong.
 219. Ensure your efforts are always constructive,
 220. Action laced with knowledge gives you full joy like a ripe fruit.
 221. Respect all great people but have the highest reverence for your Guru.
 222. Immediately on seeing a great man you may think he is greater than your Guru. This is wrong and causes your downfall.
 223. Remove your bad qualities and cultivate good ones.
 224. Everyone has some good in him. Absorb this. Never let your gaze remain on his bad qualities.
 225. Before the body falls off achieve your aim of liberation.
 226. Strive for immortality and never consider material things as everything.
 227. Earn money in a just manner and use it for good causes.
 228. It is better to drink gruel earned through right means rather than eat sumptuous food earned through immoral means.

229. "You gain immortality by spiritual practice only. (Spiritual practice alone will give you immortality)
230. By constant practice, gradually from human to the divine state and from divine to the Brahman state.
231. Even if you can't attain divinity, protect your human qualities. It is somewhat better than otherwise.
232. Compassion, calmness and devotion are three essential qualities of humanity.
233. Cruelty is quality of animals.
234. Compassion is the chief attribute of man. Man without compassion is a demon.
235. This whole universe is an university and you are a student of it.
236. In a normal college, examinations are held now and then.
237. In the University of Life, however, you face tough examinations every moment.
238. The student who succeeds in these exams is qualified as a divine person.
239. Another university lies within you. Only those who are truly qualified are admitted there.
240. There are no fraudulent means of success in the University of self.
241. On the basis of divine grace and compassion of Guru, practice knowledge of divine and control your mind.
242. For the liberal hearted, the whole world is one family.
243. Theft is the cause of sin.
244. Unless pride is removed, you can't get divine grace and teacher's favour.
245. The proud does not see earth and heaven.
246. The person who does not hear the cries of the poor and does not see orphans is truly blind.
247. Once the cloud of ego goes, the sun of Atman becomes visible.
248. A good man in bad company becomes bad.
249. The person with constant devotion to Guru can walk in the path of knowledge.
250. Though knowledge and devotion look different initially, they are one in the ultimate sense.
251. A devotee sees all as divine. A sage sees all as Brahman.
252. Never allow even a single evil thought to enter your mind.
253. Fill up your heart with positive thoughts.
254. Purify your mind by cultivating good company.
255. Treat all family members as varied manifestations of divinity.
256. Mothers should treat their children as Lord Krishna and Lord Rama.
257. While combing hair of their children, bathing them or feeding them, mothers should consider the same as service to God.
258. Like a building that is not built on sound foundation collapses, spiritual practices without pure heart go waste.
259. Your spiritual progress depends on your conduct.
260. Children, remember there is one path for your well-being. God remains even in a bad man but never make friendship with him.
261. A bad man has God in him but salute him from a distance. Never go close to him.
262. Love a bad man from a distance. Never love evil.
263. God is there even in wild animals but you salute them from a distance. You can not go close to them.
264. Remember divinity exists in all living and non-living things.
265. Like butter in milk, divinity pervades the whole universe.
266. Without churning one does not get butter from milk. And without spiritual practice one cannot see God.
267. There are many ways to reach God. Trust one of them and work hard for attainment of divinity.
268. Paths may differ but the destination of all is Divinity.
269. No Religion preaches atheism.

270. Religions that speak of absence of God are no religions in truth.
271. Follow your religion but don't hate other religions.
272. If you follow your religion where is the time for hating other religions.
273. Trust. and know clearly that where there is hatred, there is no devotion.
274. Religious conflicts arise out of ignorance.
275. It is ignorance to believe that those who quarrel are religionists and bloodbath takes place because of religions.
276. It is foolishness to attribute evil in man to religion.
277. No religion teaches us hatred violence being or stealing. It never tells you to adopt such evil qualities and spoil yourself.
278. All religions teach us to cultivate virtues and eschew evils.
279. Shed narrow feelings and cultivate broad-mindedness.
280. Of all evil qualities falsehood is the worst. Never allow it to be near you.
281. A false man is rejected by the world.
282. God pervades inside, outside, four directions, down below and up above everywhere in the universe.
283. Knowledge can't come without detachment.
284. Do you love God? Then love all living beings.(If you love all beings then you are loving God.)
285. Service to living beings is service to God.
286. Service to man is service to God.
287. God protects those who surrender to Him.
288. Sacrificing things is not detachment. Sacrificing attachment to them is.
289. Divinity manifests itself in the smallest to the biggest things in the world.
290. A limited thing can't give you happiness.
291. Knowing the infinite God gives you eternal joy.
292. If you are good, the whole world looks good.
293. If you are bad, the whole world looks bad to you.
294. The one who removes your inner agony is the real Guru.
295. Stillness is merger with the Divine.(Samadhi is nothing. but to become one with God)
296. Live to serve.
297. Live to worship God.
298. O! courageous man! Never be afraid of death.
299. The one who invites death is great.
300. The one who gladly offers his body to God of death is a real spiritual hero.
301. Pure love does not desire any reward.
302. A tree does not eat its fruits but gives them to others. A river does not drink its water but gives it to lakhs of living beings. Similarly, mountains and oceans give joy to others without expectation of any reward. O! Man! you belong to a higher order of existence and yet you hesitate to do meritorious deeds without demanding a reward. Feel sorrow for having to learn from creatures lower than you. Shed tears on this.
303. One who lives for others is wise. One who lives for himself is ignorant.
304. One is not sure of the great human birth again. Strive to gain divine vision in this very birth.
305. Spiritual life is full of nourishment.
306. Materialistic life is devoid of substance.
307. Never trust illusion. Trust in the Lord alone.
308. Knowledge of mind is better than knowledge of books.
309. An unloved work is difficult.
310. Trust in the Lord only and nothing else.
311. Peace prevails when there is no desire.
312. Atman is truth. Any other thing is not truth.
313. Even if body is destroyed, Atman does not perish.

314. The most precious of all things is Atman.
315. Sacrifice any thing for righteousness.
316. Leave lethargy and become conscious of the Divine.
317. If you seek progress, turn away the ghost of lethargy.
318. You are responsible for your situation.
319. As the mind is, so is your status.
320. Try to cultivate good qualities now. They will become natural to you later.
321. One may get a qualified Guru. But it is difficult to get a disciple keen on Liberation.
322. One may get a disciple keen on redemption but it is difficult to get a qualified Guru.
323. At the time of death, only God saves you.
324. It is a Crime to do wrong things in the name of religion.
325. Consensus is the right religion.
326. In whatever form you meditate on God, He appears in the same form before you.
327. The life of a man who helps others is pious. It is immortal.
328. God is your true friend.
329. Senses, mind, money, properties, and vehicles - all these deceive you in the end.
330. Wife, children, relatives, and friends - all these deceive you in the end.
331. When you leave the body, only knowledge comes with you.
332. At the time of death. Only righteousness saves you.
333. Be courageous and never be afraid of death.
334. Death is only a modification of status. Know this and accept it with courage and joy. At the time of death. Only God's name saves you.
335. Ignorance causes worldly entanglements.
336. Where there is beauty, there is deception.
337. What is tasty breeds illness.
338. Never leave the right path.
339. Only the one who conquers mind truly conquers the world.
340. Never be a miser. Be generous.
341. What you expect others to do to you, do the same to them.
342. Compassion, peace, sacrifices - these are main qualities of man.
343. By seeing the face of a man, you can know his qualities.
344. Treat love and penance as two eyes of you.
345. While redeeming yourself, redeem the world.
346. What gives initial joy leads to sorrow in the ultimate.
347. What gives initial pain gives joy in the end.
348. Education and knowledge may be difficult in the beginning but they give you abundant comfort in the end.
349. Without practice, one cannot reach one's aim.
350. without service to Guru, one cannot progress spiritually.
351. Devotion to Guru has to be shown in action, not in words.
352. For gaining perfection, practice, spiritual discipline taught by Guru with unswerving devotion, unshaken detachment and great sincerity.
353. Of all good qualities, patience is the foremost.
354. An impatient man cannot progress spiritually and physically.
355. By seeing the face of a person, we can say whether he is good or bad.
356. God is embodiment of beauty.
357. Before spiritual beauty, physical beauty is like a torch light before the Sun.
358. The Lord is the liquid of life.
359. All physical pleasures are devoid of nourishment.
360. All living beings belong to the divine family.
361. A wise person explores and gains eternal joy.
362. The universe exists on the support of God.
363. Expecting reward while doing something is the quality of an inferior man.
364. A noble man keeps doing good deeds without expectation of reward.

365. Passion is Death.
366. Dispassion is Life.
367. Even though evil appears to win initially, it is only good that ultimately wins.
368. For the ingnorant, falsehood appears beautiful.
369. Distortion, passivity and impurity mark this world.
370. Dispassion, dynamism and purity mark the Atman.
371. The one who leaves his comforts and helps others is the worthy.
372. Your home is a miniature universe.
373. All movements of senses or mind are termed actions.
374. Who controls passion and anger is a Yogi.
375. The one who succumbs to passion and anger is the diseased.
376. It is amazing people do not recognise the disease of worldliness in them.
377. Animal energy is useless, Soul power is significant.
378. Physical powers are of no avail before spiritual power.
379. "Asana" means keeping the mind focused on God.
380. Discipline means efforts made to focus on the Lord.
381. Discipline Should train us properly but not misguide us toward licentiousness in violation of sacred texts.
382. The chief aim of man is realization of Divinity.
383. Living for food alone is an animal quality.
384. Earning food for mind i.e., knowledge is the duty of man.
385. Body moves because of Atman. The wise realize this.
386. The one who thinks body moves on its own is ignorant.
387. The knowledge is the instrument which helps sort out differences between body and Atman.
388. Keep enquiring into the question, "Who am I"?
389. Knowledge based on enquiry is the best.
390. Brother, you mistake sorrow as Joy and poison as Nectar.
391. Go deep into the nature of Truth and act as per instructions of sacred texts.
392. Reflect on the instructions of your Teacher and other great people and focus on your duties.
393. The best person is one who irrespective of his health and comfort works incessantly for welfare of others.
394. The mediocre person is one who while taking care of his comforts helps others.
395. The lowest man is one who is totally selfish and amasses wealth and comforts for himself even by harming others.
396. An ignorant person worships others merely on the basis of intellect.
397. If the mind is not concentrated on a particular thing, it runs in different directions and ruins you.
398. The God's power is seen through Illusion.
399. Realisation of Truth is the chief duty of man.
400. Permanence is your true state.
401. Philosophy is a permanent art.
402. Divine power is the very foundation of this universe.
403. The wealth of knowledge is eternal.
404. As the shadow follows you, your deeds follow you even in a foreign land.
405. The saying of elders that Karma follows you even in Kashi is correct.
406. A devotee speaks only of God.
407. A person who does not conquer his senses is bound by his deeds.
408. A conqueror of senses gets liberated by doing his duties in a spirit of sacrifice.
409. Falsehood is death. Truth is life.
410. The one who attempts to judge a great person on the basis of his own nature is a fool.
411. A person who remains brave in the face of adversities is great.
412. The one who does not lose his joy even in the face of in-

- sults is courageous.
413. A man who remains calm even when faced with death is valorous.
414. A man who does good deeds that are favoured by God gains divine grace.
415. Never postpone what needs to be done today for tomorrow.
416. Mind is a bundle of desires.
417. The whole universe is in you.
418. Realize this and conquer your internal mind.
419. Mind is the cause of attachment and redemption.
420. The mind interested in wordly things gets bound while the mind which has no connection with material things is liberated.
421. A man controlled by his mind is bound while the one who controls his mind is liberated.
422. Man recognizes losses and dangers arising from worldly matters but he is unable to realize the great loss and danger from ignorance of the Atman.
423. Is there a greater loss than repeated births caused by wordly entanglements? Is there any greater danger than this?
424. If you base your spiritual practice on Divine Grace and kindness of Guru you can see the Atman.
525. Bliss is in dispassion.
526. India is the best suited to give spiritual knowledge to the world.
527. Though times have changed and Countries have undergone transformation. Indian culture shines ever new.
528. Feelings of high and low, one's own and others are created by the mind only.
529. Health is a great Wealth.
530. A sick man cannot accomplish anything physically or spiritually.
531. For protection of health, one has to follow certain rules strictly.
532. Eating once makes you a Yogi. Eating twice makes you a Bhogi. Eating thrice makes one a Rogi. Eating more than that makes you useless.
533. Mind is the cause of bondage or liberation.
534. Only the mind creates enmity and friendship.
535. All the wordly phenomena are reflection of the mind.
536. Regulated mind benefits you while an unregulated one harms you.
537. Through practice and detachment you can control the mind.
538. Penance removes darkness of lethargy and ignorance.
539. Faith takes you upward while lack of it pulls you down.
540. Treachery gives you sorrow while uprightness results in joy for you.
541. You should not leave the right path even at the cost of your life.
542. Righteousness saves one in danger.
543. Righteousness is the very foundation of the world.
544. Righteousness takes you closer to God.
545. Follow the path of virtue. Pray to God and Teacher to show you the right path. With their grace, you will walk the same and reach destination of bliss.
546. Who follows the right path gains the Self.
547. Victory follows virtue.
548. Where there is no virtue, failure and unrest follow.
549. Always practise the principle "I am only a part of the infinite Brahman."
550. O! Child! Never get tempted by the physical attractions.
551. If you fall for worldly attraction, you will be deceived.
552. Don't take the external love shown by your relatives and friends as real.
553. Your people love you as long as you have money.
554. When you have no money, none of your people likes to even see you. They will not talk to you. They will look

- down upon you and mock at you.
555. The tree of wrong deeds always yields bitter fruits.
556. The man who walks in the right path reaches the goal of redemption.
557. The consequence of wrong deeds is sorrow.
558. Physical wealth is ephemeral while the wealth of soul is eternal.
559. Never waste your precious life.
560. A person who has not followed the right path in youth repents in old age.
561. Decide your goal and walk towards the same steadily.
562. Wake up from the sleep of ignorance.
563. Open your eyes and do your duty.
564. When your own body is not yours, how can wife and children be yours?
565. Time is precious. Use it properly for doing good deeds with good heart.
566. Time is God.
567. A person who misuses time in unnecessary talk and useless deeds is a killer of time.
568. A man who wastes time cannot progress physically or spiritually.
569. Wealth and such other things lost can be regained but not lost time.
570. The wheel of time moves very fast.
571. Before our very eyes, the life cycle turns fast and death occurs.
572. Before death occurs, finish your duty.
573. Complete your duty and wait for death.
574. A man born is bound to die.
575. The duty of man is gain of divine vision.
576. A divine vision follow all good rules of discipline.
577. Among the rules of discipline, truthful speech and right

- action are important.
578. Serve parents, teachers and great people with devotion and obey their orders.
579. Serve the old in knowledge with faith, devotion and confidence.
580. Never do friendship with bad people even by mistake.
581. Be simple in your language and dress.
582. Eat nourishing and agreeable food in a limited way.
583. Study good books. Never even glance at bad ones.
584. Speak the truth.
585. God is the embodiment of truth.
586. Never hurt anyone with harsh speech.
587. Treat all human beings as your own brothers and sisters.
588. Never harm anyone.
589. Serve the poor and orphans with food and clothing.
590. Practice the spirit of sacrifice everyday.
591. Start sacrifice with good deeds in a small way and develop it gradually.
592. Have compassion for all living beings.
593. A man without mercy is a demon.
594. Never watch bad films even by mistake or by force of others.
595. Give up addictive habits like coffee, tea, cigarette, beedi etc.
596. Control your senses and be brave.
597. Rise early. Be clean. Study sacred texts like Srimad Bhagawad Gita, Srimad Ramayana and Srimad Bhagavatam etc., daily.
598. God resides in the pure-hearted.
599. Patience is the most important of all virtues.
600. Take care of your health and do good deeds with sincerity.
601. Absorb by heart all the three devotions-devotion to God, devotion to Guru and devotion to Country.

- 602. Uplift yourself before you can uplift the Country.
- 603. Seek the Mantra instruction from Guru and Chant the same with sincerity.
- 604. Keep your hand engaged in work while engaging mind on God.
- 605. Punctuality is intended for humans and not for birds and animals. Realise this and move forward.
- 606. Whenever a bad thought enters your mind, take bath and go to prayer room. Pray to God for removal of such evil thoughts as otherwise it will ruin your entire life. Ask the Lord sincerely to save you from the same.
- 607. God responds to a devotee's sincere prayers and protects him.
- 608. Keep doing good deeds incessantly without expectation of any reward.
- 609. Do your duties without ego and expectation of reward.
- 610. The residence of a great soul is the place of pilgrimage for you. Lakes in their places are the sacred waters for you.
- 611. Serve the noble and orphan with a feeling of Divine.
- 612. Never serve with fear or dullness.
- 613. Serve all living beings with energy, courage and sincerity.
- 614. Serve God through service to man.
- 615. Be brave in troubles and move forward with joy.
- 616. This big universe is the University that teaches you right.
- 617. Draw inspiration from example of trees, rivers, mountains and planets in Sky. Learn to work incessantly and move upwards.
- 618. Shed the ignorant life of an animal and lead life of complete knowledge and wisdom.
- 619. Attachment and aversion are the main evils that throw you down in life.
- 620. Aspirants as well as others should strive to be clean- both internally and externally. They should have good intentions and Character. They should lead a life that is useful to others.

- 621. Sloth is such an evil that it obstructs one's growth both physically and spiritually.
- 622. Laziness arises from a sense of inertia.
- 623. A lazy man remains unqualified in physical and spiritual life and caught in a spiral of poverty and sorrow. his life becomes wasted.
- 624. Drive away the devil of lethargy by chanting mantra of enthusiasm and energy.
- 625. Criticize yourself and not others.
- 626. By criticizing others your mind gets polluted and time wasted.
- 627. Don't waste precious time in criticizing others but use it for doing meritorious deeds.
- 628. A deed done without desire takes you closer to God.
- 629. Works done with desire takes you away from God.
- 630. A person who craves for respect and pretige is the lowest of all.
- 631. The one who postpones what can be done today to tomorrow is a low person.
- 632. Tomorrow is not in your hands. You don't know what happens the next moment.
- 633. God knows everything.
- 634. The person who does pre-determined things in time, with a whole hearted approach, joy and enthusiasm is the best of all.
- 635. Six hours of sleep during night is enough.
- 636. A person who sleeps too much is lethargic.
- 637. After setting apart six hours for sleep, use with joy and energy the remaining 18 hours for meditation and public service.
- 638. As far as possible, don't depend on others.
- 639. Do your own work.

640. When you have strength, it is wrong for you to depend on others.
641. Despite possession of knowledge, you must do your deeds without expectation of reward. This prevents others from going astray.
642. Pain lies in attachment while pleasure lies in detachment.
643. A man should practice as per the instructions of his teacher and recognize divinity within him.
644. Never waste the precious human life in doing evil deeds.
645. Make the best use of precious human life by doing noble deeds.
646. An immoral life like the building built without foundation will collapse.
647. The wise persons who after long penance, gain realization of the divine manifested through them, are true teachers.
648. The true teachers are guides to humanity. They need to be remembered by us daily in the morning.
649. Those persons who realize the great powers of saintly persons and serve them sincerely obtain their grace. They practice their instructions daily in morning and evening. Such people are worthy.
650. Never abuse any person. It is like abusing yourself.
651. Don't abuse anyone including birds and animals.
652. By abusing the living and non living, you abuse the divine that resides within them.
653. The heart that is full of hatred cannot have any place of divine.
654. Hatred is the opposite of devotion. Poison and nectar, darkness and light are contradictions.
655. The Karma, Bhakti, Yoga and Jnana are four yogas. These are four limbs of your body.
656. If you reject or disrespect any of the yogas, it amounts to insulting Spiritual knowledge as a whole.
657. As a body is formed of head, mind, legs and trunk, spirituality consists of knowledge, devotion, action and yoga. See the same in integral terms.
658. Absence of knowledge, devotion, action and yoga renders one spiritually handicapped.
659. Discipline in physical world is important. It is even more so in spiritual life.
660. Humility and obedience to teachers are considered by many as below their dignity. Such people are ignorant of the injunctions of sacred texts.
661. Conducting oneself in obedience to elders is in one's own interest.
662. Students kept in tight discipline may consider their teachers as hard hearted. This is not true.
663. In spiritual education, the relation between the Guru and disciple is not that of an ordinary one.
664. Know that the relationship between Guru and disciple is spiritual and is free of any selfishness.
665. An errant student left unpunished and uncorrected can cause damage to the name of Guru. He may commit the same misdeeds again and again and cause ruin to all.
666. If a lapse is not corrected in the beginning, it may become serious. It is like a tender plant growing into a mighty tree. It can cause obstruction and danger in one's spiritual path.
667. In olden days, the disciples used to obey the teachers with sincerity and follow their spiritual practices. That is why they achieved success in a short time.
668. The number of those who resist and disobey their teachers, who arrogantly think they know everything and who not only feel that their orders but also express the same have been increasing today. That is the reason why success has become a dream and no one becomes worthy.
669. Those who disobey their teachers seem to think they have done a great thing. This is absolutely wrong.
670. Noble and serene teachers laugh within themselves at the ignorance of disobedient disciples. They feel sad at violation of injunctions in sacred texts by them and bringing

- ruin upon themselves. This only shows their boundless compassion for the misguided.
671. Sadly, now-a-days we see many disciples who see the compassion of the teachers as their incompetence.
 672. Some teachers trouble their students unnecessarily in the name of discipline without mercy. They put them to different trails and tribulations. This is wrong.
 673. Teachers - disciple relation as on today is a temporary and transient one.
 674. Failure to see the sacred relation between the disciple and Guru is regrettable.
 675. A capable teacher and a stable disciple are rare now-a-days.
 676. The entire world phenomenon is the creation of the mind.
 677. What is approved in sacred texts is righteousness(Dharma).
 678. What great persons follow is righteousness(Dharma).
 679. Doing beneficial things for living beings is righteousness (Dharma).
 680. What takes you closer to God is righteousness(Dharma).
 681. What removes ignorance is righteousness(Dharma).
 682. Righteousness(Dharma) gives you peace.
 683. Righteousness(Dharma) helps conquering of mind.
 684. Righteousness(Dharma) leads to destruction of materialism.
 685. What leads you to divinity and attainment of Brahman is righteousness (Dharma).
 686. Righteousness(Dharma) is instrumental in purification of heart.
 687. Righteousness(Dharma) makes you qualified for divine grace.
 688. Bad company is the root cause of all evils.
 689. Association with evil people brings you suffering, sorrow and bad name.
 690. Do things only after deep reflection.
 691. Never do good deeds with the expectation of fame and reward.
 692. Never speak harsh words that hurt others.
 693. Reflect deeply in your heart and say only important words in a soft manner.
 694. Limited speech amounts to silence.
 695. Speak only those truthful words that benefit others.
 696. Courage is the divine ornament of man.
 697. One gains liberation easily through sacrifice.
 698. Only an enthusiastic person can complete contemplated deeds of merit.
 699. Only calmness and serene attitude help you in spiritual growth.
 700. A wise person leads meritorious enterprises with courage, interest and enthusiasm. He ultimately achieves victory.
 701. The world is composed of three qualities of Satva, Rajas and Tamas.
 702. The three Qualities that comprise the world are softness (Sativika), aggression (Rajasika) and lethargy(Tamasika).
 703. The three qualities of Satva, Rajas and Tamogunas pervade not only humans but also other living beings.
 704. The satva, rajas and tamo qualities make us commit sins and meritorious deeds.
 705. A Satvic man (soft natured) does good deeds.
 706. A Rajasik man (aggressive) does both good and bad deeds.
 707. A Tamasik man (lethargic) does only misdeeds.
 708. A Satvic man (soft nature) seeks the guidance of great people and endeavours to lead a worthy life.
 709. A Rajasik man (aggressive) praises great people and again abuses them after some time.
 710. A Tamasik man (lethargic) not only abuses great people but also troubles them.
 711. A Satvic man (soft nature) has self -control and does spiri-

- tual practices.
712. A Rajasik man (aggressive) is full of passion and anger. He is selfish.
 713. A Tamasik man (lethargic) procrastinates and becomes a tormentor of the world.
 714. Live to serve.
 715. Live to worship.
 716. Live to chant.
 717. Live to meditate.
 718. Live to praise God's name.
 719. Never miss an opportunity to serve.
 720. Never look at the faults of others.
 721. Know your faults and shortcomings. Try to remove them.
 722. Without accusing other religions, follow your own spiritual principles with diligence.
 723. Shed narrow mindedness and develop broad`mindedness.
 724. Without serving the teacher, one can't make spiritual progress.
 725. One who treats his teacher as God and serves him can easily gain Liberation.
 726. The disciple who obeys the instructions of his Master gains Divine Grace.
 727. The spiritual knowledge makes man God.
 728. Never be discouraged if you don't have good company.
 729. The books written by great Masters are your true friends.
 730. When you read great books, believe that those great authors appear before you and instruct you.
 731. A truly good company means association with what is noble by listening, remembering and concentrating on the same.
 732. Reading of good books purifies one.
 733. By merely staying near a great person, one cannot conclude that he got every thing.
 734. A frog may be near the lotus flower but it does not know how to enjoy the taste of its honey.
 735. Just as a bee coming from afar drinks the honey from a flower, the spiritual aspirant also comes from a long distance and gains the nectar of knowledge.
 736. The person who knows the purpose of being close to the great masters and consistently does what is right is worthy.
 737. Unless an aspirant lives near great persons, he will not gain real knowledge.
 738. Association with great people protects you from slipping into the worldly traps.
 739. Service to living beings is the royal path to God.
 740. Self redemption and welfare of humanity are the two eyes of an aspirant.
 741. Celibacy strengthens one's capacity to realize the Divine.
 742. A subdued mind helps us like a friend while an uncontrolled mind harms us like an enemy.
 743. One who conquers his mind is great and the one who is conquered by his mind is low.
 744. The aim of human life is divine. Never forget it.
 745. Vain speech stunts your spiritual growth.
 746. Silence is the greatest of all things.
 747. Silence removes all quarrels.
 748. Silence helps internal concentration of one's energy.
 749. Silence helps smooth performance of meditation, worship, remembrance and other spiritual practices without break.
 750. In deep silence, you can listen the inner music (Pranava nada).
 751. Silence is divine conversation.
 752. Self is known as Silence.
 753. Absolute stillness is known as Silence.
 754. One reaches God quickly through silence.

755. Silence is not merely closing of one's lips but also keeping the mind still.
756. Observe silence at the time of meditation and while eating food.
757. Observe silence once a week at the least.
758. At the time of observing silence, stay at a lonely place and do meditation or reading of good books.
759. Fear is death. Courage is life.
760. Lethargy is the root-cause of all evils.
761. Lethargy is a sign of inertia.
762. A lazy person can't progress either physically or spiritually.
763. The main reason for lack of spiritual progress lies in lethargy.
764. Faith takes you to a higher level on the spiritual plane.
765. God grants prayers made in full faith.
766. A person having doubts shall get them clarified by elders. Otherwise, lack of efforts leads to his downfall.
767. Persons who follow the principles of Truth, Non-violence, sacrifice, peace and compassion become qualified for Divine Grace.
768. Self-praise and criticism of others cause several dangers.
769. Treat others' welfare as your own and serve(seva) them sincerely.
770. Serve all with pure heart, ego-lessness and calm mental disposition.
771. Walk in the path of great people and reach the destination of joy.
772. Never see faults of others; but accept their merits.
773. Try to realize your faults and strive to remove them.
774. Close your ears when someone tells you of faults of others.
775. If someone tells you of your faults, listen to the same with care. If they are true, rectify them immediately. If not true, remain a silent witness to such comments. Never, however, get angry with them.
776. Treat your critics who point out your faults as your teachers and friends. Show them your gratitude.
777. If you spend more than what you can, you get into debt.
778. A man without debts is considered rich.
779. The one who enjoys luxuries on borrowed money is subject to reproach and sorrow.
780. Earn money in the right way and take care of your family in a simple manner.
781. It is better to eat simple food earned through right means than eat sweets earned through wrong means.
782. Keep away from addictive habits like coffee, tea, cigar, beedi etc.,
783. Going to films and dramas drags you into a wrong stream of life and causes your downfall.
784. Give 10% of your hard-earned money to the poor and charitable institutions.
785. With a pure heart, think deeply and spend your money only for the most essential items for your dress and body protection.
786. Don't think of ostentation and applause from public but act as per the injunctions laid down in sacred texts.
787. If you don't know the sacred texts, seek guidance from scholars and act as per their advice.
788. Get up at dawn time and pray to God, the All-mighty and Compassionate by sitting in bed for a few minutes daily.
789. Do physical exercises after ablutions in the morning.
790. Do Yoga, sun - salutations for half an hour daily and let impurities like sweat be expelled.
791. Exercise make your body light and healthy.
792. Practice of Yoga and sun-salutations gives both your body and mind health and calmness.
793. Exercise increases one's health and longevity.

794. Exercise not only prevents diseases but also helps in removal of the desires, pride, miserliness, passion, jealousy, violence, worry, falsehood and such other bad qualities.
795. Regular exercise inculcates in you good conduct, faith in teachers and sacred texts and desire to spend time in the presence of noble souls.
796. Exercise helps you to avoid visits to the doctor. There is no need to take medicines which spoil your body.
797. Lead a simple and pious life that takes you to the path of bliss.
798. Even of your dress is simple, your thoughts should be lofty.
799. For protection of one's honour, coarse clothes will do. Simple food is enough for stomach. Reduce luxuries and develop detachment.
800. Don't be afraid that in detachment you may have to leave you properties, wife and children.
801. Detachment is not physically leaving people or things.
802. Detachment means lack of attachment to things and people, despite being in the middle of them.
803. Sacrifice is the main ornament of man. Without this quality, he can't gain purity of heart or concentration. He will not, thus, gain Divine Grace.
804. Immortality comes through sacrifice only.
805. Sacrifice only gives one fame in this world and Eternal Bliss in the other.
806. There is no greater law than non-violence.
807. A man who harbours the evil quality of violence can't progress either materially or spiritually.
808. Not hurting any one by mind, word or deed in non-violence.
809. Stealing the money of others and hurting them amounts to violence.
810. Never tell lies even in the most adverse of situations.
811. Whatever be the lure of money, never tell lies.
812. Don't fall in the trap of material gains, and leave truth.
813. Truth is God and God is Truth. Trust this firmly and be determined about it.
814. God showers His Grace on those who adhere to Truth.
815. When you speak Truth God who is the embodiment of Truth appears before you and assures you of His protection.
816. Adherence to Truth purifies one's heart.
817. Truth smoothens the path of one's progress and well-being.
818. The truthful are blessed by the noble and great persons.
819. For gaining the grace of Teacher and God, truthfulness is the chief instrument.
820. All the rules are embedded in Truth.
821. This entire physical universe is founded on truth.
822. The movements of Sun, moon, stars and all other planets are governed by Truth.
823. Adherence to Truth gives one great fame and capacity to do many lofty deeds.
824. A seemingly impossible task is also accomplished by adherence to Truth.
825. Control all your senses. Through this, you become powerful and gain internal vision.
826. Cultivate the company of good people at all times.
827. When you read good books written by great people, noble thoughts spring in your heart. The purified heart and heavenly circumstances give you joy. When your heart is impure, the wicked people and hell like circumstances surrounding you make you grieve. Materialistic attitude brings you sadness.
828. There is no hell or heaven outside. They are within you.
829. God has given you the power to turn your heart into a heaven. Realise this.
830. Chanting of a Divine Name purifies you unbelievably. It transforms your heart into heaven.
831. Never treat a divine name as mere collection of letters. It

- is a powerful mantra composed of embedded meanings.
832. Realise the power of Divine Name. Receive instruction in mantra from the right guru with faith. Chant it with sincerity.
833. Chanting of Divine Name is the very basis of your life. It saves you even from the calamity of death.
834. Believe sincerely that it is only the Divine Name that protects you from all sins and sorrows.
835. There is no difference between Divine Name and Divine. Name reminds you of Divine and Divine reminds you of His Name.
836. If you chant the Divine Name with full devotion, God will be pleased with you.
837. God can be tied by the rope of devotion.
838. To understand the Divine, devotion is the most important thing and not any materials.
839. Unparalleled love for the Divine is devotion.
840. If you chant the name of the Divine with full faith for long, you are able to see God.
841. Faith that shakes mountains and unflinching devotion are important for realization of the Divine.
842. Continue the efforts for seeing God at this very moment.
843. God is one but paths for reaching Him are many.
844. God has several Forms and Names. All Divine Names and Forms are true. In whatever Name or Form you worship. God grants His Grace to you.
845. Shed tears for Vision of the Lord. Such persons who do so are worthy.
846. Silence is Divine Bliss.
847. Sound is the cause of sorrow.
848. The silent, lonely and sacred abode is peaceful.
849. A place full of sound and crowds is cause of unrest.
850. In silent and deep contemplation, one can experience the Divine Bliss.
851. The state of calm Bliss is like a sea without waves.

852. O! Aspirant! Never forget that you are in the Divine (Brahman) and the Divine (Brahman) in you.
853. Forgetfulness in death. Remembrance is Life.
854. Meditation should be continuous like the flow of oil.
855. Who treats others' Joy as his own and serves them in noble.
856. Real Bliss is in you.
857. Brother, this moment is yours. We don't know how would be the next moment.
858. Enjoy the Divine Bliss here and now.
859. Never see evil in others.
860. Try to see good in others.
861. Run away from evil spoken of others. This will surely take you to your destination in a safe manner.
862. Never stay for a moment at a place where others are spoken ill of.
863. Never speak ill of others.
864. Criticise yourself. Realise your defects and shortcomings. Strive to remove them and move forward on the spiritual path.
865. Make this human life of yours worthy.
866. If you are born as a bird or an animal in the next birth, you may lose the opportunity of being worthy of human life.
867. Man tempts another and deceives him but God protects one in all ways.
868. Today is in your hands. We can't say anything about tomorrow. So, do whatever good work you can today itself.
869. The man who conquers his mind conquers the whole world.
870. One may conquer the world but may not have conquered his mind.
871. The person who conquers his mind is great. One should salute him.
872. A heart full of love is abode of the Divine.
873. A heart devoid of love is a place of evil forces.
874. Removal of illusion is the main duty of him.
875. We can earn the money lost but not time.

- 876. Time is Eternal wealth.
- 877. Time is the Form of God.
- 878. Protection of character is the main duty of humans.
- 879. Incessant discipline in work is true worship of Lord.
- 880. You have infinite power in you. Recognise experience and enjoy this.
- 881. The one who yearns for God is worthy.
- 882. Stop your sleep of ignorance and wake into the world of knowledge.
- 883. Never stop the Journey till you reach the destination. Stop not your march till you reach the goal.
- 884. Reform yourself before you attempt to reform others.
- 885. The Divine is only One but is known by different Names.
- 886. Paths for reaching the Divine are many but the Destination is One.
- 887. Work does not attract many but its fruits attract all.
- 888. The person who does not work has no right to eat. Eating thus, is a sin.
- 889. A life without peace and calmness is a waste.
- 890. Liberation (Moksha) is described as Great Peace by sages.
- 891. Gaining peace should be your target and ultimate aim.
- 892. Peace is the birth right of all human beings.
- 893. By adopting a calm approach only, one gains peace.
- 894. Chant the mantra of peace while exhaling air. Chant the mantra of peace while inhaling air. Hold respiration by chanting the mantra of peace. This is the easiest and most beautiful way of gaining Liberation.
- 895. Selfish love is not real love.
- 896. Sages praised love as God.
- 897. Never forget that Love is God and God is Love.
- 898. A heart devoid of love is a cemetery.
- 899. Man needs both physical and mental strength.
- 900. Like both eyes, physical and mental energies are important for man.

- 901. Man should make strong and sustained efforts for cultivating both physical and mental strength.
- 902. Great people who have developed both physical and mental strength achieved spiritual as well as material progress. They thus became an example to the world.
- 903. Always remember that health is wealth and strive for attaining the same.
- 904. A sick person cannot achieve even a small thing.
- 905. Strength is life and weakness is death.
- 906. Forgetting God the Almighty is death. Remembering Him always is life.
- 907. Growth is life. Decline is death.
- 908. It is better to lead a life of wisdom for one year than live a hundred years of ignorance.
- 909. The path of worldliness is wide at the beginning but becomes narrow as you move. On the other hand the path of Liberation is initially narrow but becomes wider and wider as you move forward.
- 910. Common people choose the worldly path and get bound. They remain in sorrow. The wise, on the other hand, travel in the path of Liberation and become free. They thus enjoy eternal bliss.
- 911. Birds and animals wake up at dawn and sing the glory of God. O! Man! why don't you praise the Lord and gain Bliss?
- 912. Sacred texts emphasise forgetting the father who gave you physical birth is a great sin. Have you realized how much more grave is the sin of forgetting the Father who created this entire universe? Realise this now at the least and pray to God. Meditate Enjoy Divine Bliss.
- 913. For realisation of the self, intensity of concentration is the most important rule.
- 914. If the heart is not steady and calm, there is no joy in meditation.
- 915. By constant practice mind becomes pure and steady over time.

- 916. The moment the mind becomes pure and steady the divine vision becomes real.
- 917. The disciple who follows the instruction of Guru with full faith and unswerving devotion progresses spiritually.
- 918. The one who gains the grace of Guru can achieve anything.
- 919. Arrogance is a great evil.
- 920. An arrogant person can't gain any benefit physically or spiritually.
- 921. An arrogant person suffers downfall and becomes sad in no time.
- 922. The impure and gross bound by illusion (Maya) feel proud that they are superior in knowledge, wealth, beauty or power.
- 923. The evil-minded lead their lives by rejecting noble teachers, resisting scholars and abusing good people.
- 924. Those intoxicated with pride feel they are superior in birth, purity and everything in life.
- 925. An arrogant person does not get respect in society. On the other hand, he gets humiliated frequently.
- 926. One's humility should be in direct proportion to his knowledge. His obedience should be in direct proportion to his wealth. His calmness should be in direct proportion to his scholarship.
- 927. History teaches us that many who reached the peak of pride fell down.
- 928. Without destruction of ego, you can't have vision of the self.
- 929. As long as one has relation with body sorrow can't be avoided. As one's relation with the Atman grows, one's sense of joy increases.
- 930. A kind heart is the abode of God.
- 931. God is an ocean of compassion.
- 932. Those who help others with kindness are helped by God.
- 933. Helping others is worship of God.
- 934. Those who help others by treating others' difficulties as their own are noble.

- 935. Out of the two eyes given by God, use one for worshipping God in temples and great persons and gaining peace. Use the other for seeing the sorrows of the poor. Out of the two ears you have, use one for listening to preachings of great people and another for listening to sufferings of the miserable and removing the same. Use one hand for earning money in the right way and use another for serving the sages and poor people. Use one leg for visiting the residences of Yogis and pilgrim centres and use another for going to the residences of the poor, cleaning them and solving their problems.
- 936. A Householder should serve his parents with devotion.
- 937. The one who has devotion for his mother and father is a true son.
- 938. The person who after gaining power and wealth disobeys and insults his parents will go to hell.
- 939. Treat other women as your own mother and salute them.
- 940. Donate money to the poor and charitable institutions.
- 941. Those who seek your welfare are true relatives but those who come to you for money.
- 942. Sacrifice is the chief of all noble qualities. A person who sacrifices gains fame. Divine Grace and Immortality.
- 943. Good company is the root of all good things.
- 944. Good company helps in cultivation of good qualities.
- 945. Courage in danger, indifference in wealth, skill in transaction, humility in scholarship are the hallmarks of a true house-holder.
- 946. Do any good work with purity of word, thought and deed.
- 947. Doing worship with mind being elsewhere, meditation with speech elsewhere and doing helpful acts with body elsewhere are wasteful. Is it possible to light a lamp with wick, oil and container being in three different places? Reflect on this.
- 948. The one who does not think of the past, who does not build castles in air about future and who uses the present mo-

- ment for spiritual growth is liberated.
949. Speak softly. Speak with love. Speak beneficial things. Speak Truth.
950. The one who tries, reaches the destination one day.
951. The one who lacks effort can't move one step forward in the right path.
952. Efforts made with forbearance benefit you here and hereafter.
953. Good persons speak truth, help others, keep company with good persons strive for self knowledge, practise spiritual discipline as instructed by Teacher and lead a happy and pious life.
954. The whole world depends on righteousness. So, follow it and gain benefit for the Self.
955. Visiting the noble is always beneficial.
956. Who is not elated when honoured and who is not sad when insulted is great.
957. Thought should be lofty and pure. Purity of thinking leads to knowledge of the self.
958. Good people remain one in word, thought and deed. It means they say what they think. They do what they say. Bad people, on the other hand do not say what they think. They do not do what they say.
959. Desire is the root-cause of all sorrows. The man without desires is rich. And the one with desires is poor.
960. Falsehood seems to triumph initially but ultimately it is Truth that wins.
961. There is no special merit in doing good for those who do good to you. The best thing is doing good for those who wrong you.
962. One should not listen to a bad man, though elder. On the other hand, one should respect and follow the advice of a good person, though young.
963. There is no disease equal to lust.
964. There is no enemy equal to passion.
965. There is no fire equal to anger.
966. There is no nectar equal to peace.
967. There is no money equal to knowledge.
968. There is no Joy equal to liberation.
969. There is no sorrow equal to attachment.
970. Anger is the root-cause of all evils.
971. Anger is the greatest enemy.
972. Anger results in sorrow.
973. Those who are slaves to lust can't be servants of Lord Rama. (A Kami never reaches Rama)
974. Selfishness makes one do anything.
975. A selfish man earns money by wrong means. As the body is temporary, he dies one day. His sons fritter away his hard earned money on luxuries and become paupers in no time.
976. The one who strives for the welfare of his family, is a common man. The one who strives for the welfare of the entire world is Great.
977. Helping others is the greatest law.
978. The one who achieves health, scholarship, self-restraint and good company, though poor is considered rich.
979. A chariot can't move with one wheel. Similarly, human effort alone is not sufficient for accomplishment of a work. God's Grace is needed for success. Both God's grace and human effort together are needed for victory.
980. Satisfaction is like nectar. The satisfied person can gain Eternal Bliss.
981. Speak little. Eat little. Transact little. This is the royal path to the city of Liberation.
982. Good conduct causes good to man.
983. The one who protects his character shines in the world.
984. Those who do good for others without expectation of rewards are noble.
985. Enmity with great people is like playing with fire.

986. Try for salvation only when you are healthy and young and when circumstances are favourable to you.
987. Detached life is blissful life.
988. Spiritual Quest results in knowledge.
989. Joy or sorrow, profit or loss, good or bad - whatever happens, experience the same with happiness. Joy and sorrow are the result of past mistakes.
990. Disease lies in luxuries.
991. Health and happiness lie in simple life.
992. Worldly entanglements are more dangerous than poison. Poison kills only the person who drinks it but worldly things destroy one who even sees them.
993. Don't be satisfied with knowledge of sacred thoughts. Gain practical knowledge.
994. Mind is the cause of bondage and Liberation.
995. Impure heart causes attachment while pure heart gives you liberation.
996. Strive and gain Devotion, knowledge and detachment. Be worthy.
997. Life without worries is worthy.
998. The life of a man who is always worried is a waste.
999. The man who does not penance can't be pious.
1000. Mind is one's relative. It is also one's enemy.
1001. Follow the instructions of Guru and sacred texts. Practise spiritual discipline. Make the mind your relative.
1002. The one who wants Liberation must treat sound and other worldly things as poison and avoid them.
1003. The one who has knowledge that He is the Self (Atman) remain fearless and blissful.
1004. The one who has sincerity gains knowledge.
1005. The ever contended experiences the Joy of Self.
1006. Uplift yourself.
1007. Leave all burdens on God. Be relaxed and lead a happy life.
1008. The result of detachment is philosophical wisdom.
1009. The man with the Self- knowledge is worthy. He is respected by the world.
1010. The movements of great people add splendor to this world.
1011. An unpius man can't have knowledge of the Self.
1012. The Divine Bliss is indescribable and extra sensory. It is beyond speech and imagination.
1013. Knowledge of the Divine demands respect for teacher-disciple tradition.
1014. Knowledge of the Divine remains eternally bright through traditional absorption of Brahman from teacher to disciple in succession.
1015. Teachers light up the lamps called students who, in turn, do the same for their disciples. The lights of knowledge thus burn brilliantly.
1016. When you light a lamp from another, there is no loss to the latter. The lamps lit by Rishis(sages) burn bright to this day. The Spiritual light never dims. It burns till the world lasts.
1017. Ignorance is removed by a vision of the Self. All doubts thereafter get dispelled. All actions get destroyed. The cycle of birth and death gets broken.
1018. All rivers merge into the sea. Similarly all spiritual practices aim at Self-Revelation.
1019. Getting a human birth is your fortune. Do not be satisfied with this. Seek the grace of a good teacher and obtain Divine instruction. Thereafter do spiritual practice in solitude and be worthy.
1020. The human birth is got by you for knowing the Divine. Once you know the Divine, you gain eternal benefit. Otherwise, you are put to great loss.
1021. Those who are spiritually focussed are immortal.
1022. Those who do not know the Divine are ignorant.
1023. This entire visible world is the form of "OM"
1024. Even if you utter it once. "Omkaara" is a great mantra that

- takes you to the highest level.
1025. Omkara is the symbol and name of Divine.
 1026. The mantra that is to be meditated upon, praised and sung by all those intent on Liberation is OMKARA only.
 1027. The means of escape from the fear of worldly sorrows is OMKARA only.
 1028. The mantra that puts every living being in the Divine and helps them to attain the highest level of serenity is OMKARA only.
 1029. Merger of your mind with Pranava Mantra is immortality.
 1030. Pranava Mantra is declared by sages as worship of the Divine.
 1031. Oceans, rivers, mountains, trees, animals and birds sing Pranava Mantra while human beings sing worldly songs. What a surprise!
 1032. Animals, birds, trees rivers and such other beings of lower order sing Pranavamantra while men do not sing it and thus lose Bliss and Divine experience. What a tragedy is this!
 1033. Sri Saraswati, the Queen of knowledge plays her divine harp and sings Pranava Mantra.
 1034. Gods, Sages and Yogis continuously chant Pranava Mantra and ecstatic.
 1035. Superior human beings however seem to realise the power and are glory of Pranava Mantra and enjoy great bliss by singing it.
 1036. The origin of four Vedas lies in Omkara mantra.
 1037. The infinite nature of Divine established in Vedas is Omkara only.
 1038. All the fourteen worlds emerged out of Pranava Mantra.
 1039. Before commencement as well as conclusion of study of Vedas chanting of meditation, recital of Pranava Mantra with faith and devotion is required to be done.
 1040. If you don't recite Pranava Mantra before and after meditation, chanting or vedic's study. you may forget the same. The whole practice then becomes a waste.
 1041. The Omkara Mantra is a vast and deep ocean. All other mantras like rivers/merge into it.
 1042. All denominations of Hindu religion - whether Advaita, Vishistadwaita, Dwaita, Shaiva, Vaishnava or Sakteya or Ganapatya - have Omkara as their life force. All of them accept Omkara as the principal sign of Divine and worship the same accordingly.
 1043. Chanting of Pranava, absorption of its inner meaning and enjoying the nectar of Divine Bliss are the means to Liberation.
 1044. Never utter Pranava Mantra like a parrot. Drink its nectarine taste deeply and immerse yourself in divine feeling and continue the chant.
 1045. The recital of powerful mantra that drives out all deeply rooted impurities in you is Pranava Mantra.
 1046. Chanting of Omkara mantra with deep faith and over a long time removes bad tendencies and intentions. It purifies your heart and helps you to gain the Divine state.
 1047. Chanting of Pranava with faith and determination gives you inner Vision.
 1048. Chanting of Pranava with sincerity stabilizes your mind and helps it focus on meditation.
 1049. Worship of Pranava Mantra is a wonderful device that removes your physical and mental obstacle to attainment of absorption in Divine in a short time.
 1050. Omkara is the primal cause of origin, sustenance and dissolution of this universe.
 1051. Meditation on Omkara destroys one's ignorance.
 1052. When the Trinity of Lord Brahma, Vishnu and Maheswara are incapable of fully explaining the nature and power of Omkara, what should be said of others?
 1053. The body and mind of a person who recites Pranava mantra get purified
 1054. O! Aspirant! Sing Omkara mantra in a sweet and resonant voice.